

Join us as we spend an evening showcasing stories of Marion's history.

Marion Memories...

You Are Invited...

2009 history panel:

Jim Waddell
Tom Jenkins
Steve Jenkins
Bob Dowd

Whether you are a history buff, collect history items, or just know -- or want to know -- about Marion's history, you'll want to join us Thursday, October 1, 2009 at John M. Boler Activity Center (former Marion Catholic Activity Center). Mingle and view historical memorabilia starting at 5:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 6:15 p.m. with historical reminiscing and a presentation at 7:15 p.m. Hear from Jim Waddell and his family association with Waddell Village Children's Home. Jdg. Tom Jenkins will highlight being a Judge in Marion for twenty-four years. Steve Jenkins will share Henney & Cooper retail history. Bob Dowd will recall stock market stories from his office in the Hotel Harding.

Through the efforts of the Marion Area Convention and Visitors Bureau board we have uncovered many more interesting stories about Marion, that we feel we need to share. What better way to retell these stories than by gathering together with those people who know the details to share with you over dinner.

Get your $22.00 adult ticket or $10.00 student ticket through the Marion Area CVB, 1713 Marion-Mt. Gilead Rd., Suite 110, or by calling 740-389-9770. Join us for an evening of fun and history.
